

Zonal Railway

In order to discharge the Administrative function, each Zone is having a General Manager. Additional General Managers, Senior Dy. General Managers, Dy. General Managers, Chief Public Relations Officer, Chief Planning Officer and Heads of Department for the following functions:

Principal heads of department of zonal railways

- a) Operating -- Chief Operating Manager..
- b) Engineering – Principal Chief Engineer.
- c) Electrical —Chief Electrical Engineer.
- d) S & T —Chief Signal & Telecommunication Engineer.
- e) Mechanical—Chief Mechanical Engineer.
- f) Personnel-- Chief Personnel Officer
- g) Stores --Controller of Stores
- h) Security--Chief Security Commissioner
- i) Accounts—Financial Adviser and Chief Account Officer.
- j) Medical --Chief Medical Officer.
- k) Construction- Chief Administrative Officer
- l) Commercial – Chief Commercial Manager

Divisional Railway

The zonal railways work on divisional system. Each railway is divided into three to six divisions, each division having approximately 400 to 800 route kilometers in its territory. Each division works under the overall control of Divisional Railway Manager (DRM), who is assisted by one or two Additional Divisional Railway Managers(ADRM). There are divisional officers in charge of each branch either in Junior administrative grade or Senior scale.